VALUE: £1.4 million

CONTRACT DESCRIPTION:

Mann Construction was asked to provide a new banqueting hall, kitchens and health suite to the prestigious Hurlingham Club in Fulham SW1.

Our works included the provision of an extensive basement construction, formed some 3m below the tidal water level of the adjacent Thames.

We also completed all the foundations, drainage and ground floor slabs including suspended slab over the basement, and continued up to 1st floor level with an R.C. frame, and topped off with a combination of suspended R.C. slabs, and structural topping to ribdeck at first floor level.

External works included the provision of an access road, and extensive hard landscaping in natural York stone.
